

IRP, a division Pathway Health is looking for Occupational Therapists to join our Victoria, BC and Toronto, ON locations. Flexible schedules and compensation.

Work as a member of a multidisciplinary pain and mental health team member supporting military veterans, first responders and RCMP reclaim their health. Our mission is to build a safe, welcoming, and supportive environment to provide the very best in modern, evidence-based physical rehabilitation programs. Programs are outlined; however, we utilize a trauma informed lens making the programs as individualized as possible.

Initially this position will be part-time however will increase with patient volumes.

- Are you a talented, caring and compassionate Occupational Therapist interested in joining a team of interventional pain physicians and specialists?
- Passionate about providing comprehensive programs that lead to better health outcomes for patients, maximizing their physical and functional abilities?

If you answered yes to these questions, please read through the details below and apply as instructed at the bottom of this posting.

Here are a few ways you will make a difference

All responsibilities identified below are for the Company; however, there may be some crossover related to clinical operating subsidiaries.

Primary Responsibilities

- Conduct an initial assessment and report for approval prior to start of treatment paradigm
- Evaluation/programming components may include:
 - Plan treatment programs corresponding to treatment goals
 - Provide information concerning evaluation results
- Provide occupational therapy assessments midway and at the end of the treatment plan reports for Veterans Affairs or other programs as they arise.
- Utilize outcome measures to track process for programs
- Liaise with multidisciplinary team members
- Contribute to program development utilizing evidence-informed treatment modalities
- Integrate with healthcare providers to ensure continuity of care
- Assist in the regular maintenance scheduling of all interventional devices utilized in treatments

Abilities and Knowledge

- Registered as a occupational therapist in Canada as well as British Columbia
- Experience with complicated presentation of complex pain syndromes
- Experience with trauma informed care and/or a willingness to learn about trauma informed care

Qualifications

- Ability to plan and implement intervention strategies
- Ability to communicate effectively (both written and orally)

- Values continuing education and advancement of clinical skills and services
- Excellent communication, documentation, and interpersonal skills
- Commitment to quality care and service delivery
- The ability to work both individually and as part of a multidisciplinary healthcare team
- Liability Insurance
- Knowledgeable in treating patients with various acute and sub-acute conditions
- Able to work flexible days and hours

Education and Experience

- Master's degree
- Registered member in good standing with the as an Occupational Therapist

Working Environment & Travel

- Clinical environment
- Up to an 8 Hour Shift
- Part-time

Requirement

- All employees /consultants / allied partners working within any of our offices or clinics must be fully vaccinated and provide proof of vaccination
- Under health & safety legislation, employees / consultants / allied partners working within any of our clinics or places of work have an obligation to ensure the safety of themselves and those around them, which includes the assurance that they have immunity to the covid-19 virus, unless there is a medical or religious reason not to
- If this is the case, a conversation with Human Resources is required to discuss and determine how we can ensure your protection and the protection of those around you

* Management reserves the right to change the scope of the role acting reasonably. ****

How We Work

Essence – Life on Your Terms

Purpose – To liberate people from chronic pain

Vision – Lives unencumbered by chronic pain

Attributes/Values – Revolutionary, Devoted, Intellect, Engaged, Kinetic

Pathway Health Corp. is an equal opportunity employer and welcomes and encourages applications from people with disabilities. Accommodations are available on request for candidates taking part in all facets of our selection process.

If you are interested in exploring this opportunity with Pathway Health, please submit your resume and cover letter with hourly rate expectations. Only candidates selected to move forward in the hiring process will be contacted.

resume@pathwayhealth.ca